

"BLACK HAND" CHIEF CAUGHT IN NEW YORK

Appalling Crime Laid at Door of One Who Fled From Italy.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—In the arrest today of Pellegrino Mule, a big, gaunt Italian, who is alleged to be under sentence of life imprisonment in Italy for murder, the police have the leader of one of the most desperate "black hand" gangs in the country. The special charge on which he was arrested was having exploded a bomb in a big restaurant house in First avenue, last November. Twenty children were injured by the fire that followed the explosion. The Italian government had furnished the police here with a transcript of Mule's criminal record in his own country, and it was a most appalling one. Among other crimes he is alleged to have committed in his native province is the decapitation of a citizen who informed against the band of brigands of which he was a leader.

Six Italians Arrested.
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 7.—Six Italians, members of an alleged "black hand" society, were arrested in a body today at Sewickley heights, a fashionable suburb. The foreigners are said to be responsible for the threatening letters mailed recently to Richard R. Quay, son of the late Senator Quay; C. C. Seate, P. P. Snyder and Harlan Singer, wealthy residents of the heights. The men captured today maintained headquarters in an old shanty in the woods. Three Italians were arrested in the same place a week ago. Since then "black hand" letters have threatened death if proceedings were not dropped.

Found Dead in Room.
SAN DIEGO, Cal., Feb. 7.—S. A. Moody of St. Louis was found dead this morning in his room at the Hotel Richmond by his sister, Mrs. L. C. Stachen, who is here with him on a trip. Mr. Moody was 60 years old and was a pioneer resident of Webster Grove, a suburb of St. Louis. He and his sister had been here about two weeks. Death was due to natural causes, it is supposed.

Deadlock Prevails.
FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 7.—The Senatorial ballot today was again without result.

Heart Pains

Are relieved, and palpitation, fluttering, and irregular pulse overcome by using Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It makes the heart nerves and muscles strong, so the heart is able to do its work easily. This relieves the strain which causes the distress. Sold by all druggists.

"Dr. Miles' Heart Cure cured me when several doctors failed. My case was bad. I had difficulty in getting my breath, my heart beat so fast at times that I thought it impossible to live without relief. The pain was very severe in my left side, and my nerves were all unstrung. I am sure I would not have been cured, if I had not taken the Heart Cure."

SHOULD SECURE OPERATORS EVEN AT HIGHER WAGES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Martin A. Knapp, chairman of the Interstate Commerce commission, said before the House Committee on Commerce today that he did not believe a railroad had good reason for not manning its telegraph stations with a sufficient number of men when it was a question of higher wages or no operators.

This was in answer to questions put by various members of the committee concerning the petitions of railroad companies asking for an extension of the time limit in which they should have a stipulated number of telegraph operators at each station. Mr. Knapp said that in many cases the railroads have not tried to meet the requirements of the law. "The commission will not undertake to say whether the roads could not get men if they were to pay the price," suggested Mr. Sherman.

Mr. Knapp replied: "The roads, I believe, can get men in a reasonable time if they pay enough for them."

TALBOT DIVORCE CASE IS FINALLY ARRANGED

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—A decree granting a divorce to William R. Talbot from Annie D. Talbot, and settling property rights between the two, was handed down by Judge Seawell this morning. By this decree Mrs. Talbot is to receive $800 a month alimony, a life estate in the residence at Scott and Jackson streets, and the furnishings of the same, and the custody of the daughter, Vera. In return Mrs. Talbot assigns her community interest to her husband, reserving a lien on the residence at Scott and Jackson streets to protect her in case of the husband's inability to pay the $800 a month. Talbot has the custody of his sons, William and Eric, and pays for Vera's education.
